Subject: Finale Day @ BNY Mellon Technologies

Hi Friends,

I wish I could convey a good news to every one of you via this email but unfortunately (fortunately for few may be) this is my FAREWELL MESSAGE.

DISCLAIMER-1: This mail is not intended to hurt anybody feeling directly or indirectly. Please do appreciate my level of sarcasm because I'm trying to be humorous here.

DISCLAIMER-2: I'm trying hard to keep this mail simple and straight forward, refraining myself from uncontrollable tears while typing this mail(Please read DISCIAIMER-1).

This is my last day at iNautix sadly. I'm relieving today of course it's my personnel choice. The days which I spent in iNautix has given me a lot of memorable friends and colleagues ,If you are receiving this mail you are one among them.(In case if I missed someone ,I kindly apologize and it is purely unintentional).

I couldn't control my emotions and feelings when I remember about the days I had in here. From the fastest lifts in Ascendas and to the crawling lifts at Tidal Park, the early morning 11:15 AM swipe in, much needed coffee break at 11:30 AM, logging on to machine at 12:30 PM, lunch at 1 PM, again break at 3PM,spending the remaining time waiting for evening snacks at 7:30 PM ,standing in never ending queue for snacks, last swipe out proudly at 7:45 PM (remaining 30 minutes are meant to be regularized),weekend home-town trips, returning to office with hard heart on next Monday morning. Remembering all the wonderful feel when I received my salary without delay on the last day of the month.

With no regrets I could say I have given my best at iNautix.

I'm thankful for all the sweet memories and life experiences it gave me. I learnt a lot through this journey. I could proudly pronounce that I'm a former iNautician, Best of all I couldn't express my feelings towards the people whom I met here, I was overwhelmed with love ,care and wisdom ,Over all they are one among the best friends I have ever had and will have an irreplaceable place in my heart.

The next is so called formally as the Advice section. You could skip if you want, but don't blame me for not teaching you my wisdom.

"Good things take time"

"Doesn't matter if you are sad ,happy ,depressed or euphoric, Never stop learning"

"Opportunities are more a like MTC buses than share-autos they don't wait for you to board and will come at right time you will miss one if you are not ready for it."

~ Prithiviraj

I like to conclude my mail with a GOOD BYE formally but this is not a final Good Bye. Good friends will always be in touch.

In case of any clarification or for any further advice you could always contact me at my personnel mail id given below.

I would like to thank each one of you for every experience , friendships made & good times I had. I will cherish those memories forever. I wish you all the very best for the future, but only if you wish me the same.

GOOD BYE ALL

With Regards,

Prithiviraj Murugan
